Order of Assembly

- Notes:
- 1. cut each element separately right before sewing in order to prevent fraying
 - 2. cut organza pieces on top of paper for higher accuracy
 - 3. use fabric weights instead of pins to prevent bulking, only pinning where necessary
 - 4. do not press organza with steam as it will melt, press with heat only
 - 5. do not leave organza on the heated ironing board for more than a minute at once, especially without vacuum as it will shrink
- organza
- Bodice (self and contrast 2)
- 1. cut out all the pieces according, making sure all notches and darts are marked
 - 2. sew all the darts
 - 3. attach the front pieces to the back pieces on the shoulders only, leaving side seams open
 - 4. repeat on the lining
 - 5. press the seams and darts towards the back
 - 6. attach the main bodice to the lining by sewing right side to right side, leaving out side seams
 - 7. bag out through the side seam opening
 - 8. close the side seams from the outside as much as possible using the sewing machine
 - 9. close the rest by hand
 - 10. press
 - 11. hand sew 12 pairs of hook and eyes, placing them 4 cm apart, 1.5cm from the edge on the inside of the right side and 2.5cm from the edge on the exterior of the left side
 - 12. sew 2 pairs of hook and eyes on the dart leg to reinforce the shape of the bodice

Shoulder wing (self, contrast, polyester boning)

- 1. cut out all the pieces according, making sure all notches, darts and stitch lines are marked
- 2. place organza on top of self fabric, right sides facing up
- 3. overlock all around to prevent organza from fraying
- 4. with right sides facing together, attach two sides of the wings together leaving openings for boning in the middle and on one end as marked
- 5. bag out and press the edges flat
- 6. create boning channels by sewing parallel lines 13mm wide as marked, stop stitching 2cm before the end
- 7. cut the boning tip according to the shape of the boning channel

Order of Assembly

- 8. insert two top rows of boning through the openings in the middle (4 pieces of boning)
 - 9. insert two bottom rows of boning through the tiny opening left at the tip of the wings (2 pieces of boning)
 - 10. insert the boning with the curve facing outward entering through the opening in the middle
 - 11. cut the boning only after inserting all the boning through the tunnel
 - 12. cut around the seam allowance at an angle for an ease of closing the openings
 - 13. topstitch all around the wing, closing the openings in the meantime by folding in the edges
 - 14. push the boning pieces up so that they sit vertically up inside of the boning channels
- Waist wings (self, contrast, polyester boning)
- 1. cut out all the pieces according, making sure all notches, darts and stitch lines are marked
 - 2. place organza on top of self fabric, right sides facing up
 - 3. overlock all around to prevent organza from fraying
 - 4. with right sides facing each other, sew around the wing to attach the pieces together, leaving out the curved side open as marked
 - 5. bag out and press edges flat
 - 6. create boning channels 13mm wide as marked, stop stitching 2cm before the end
 - 7. pre-cut the tip of the boning according to the shape of the boning tunnel
 - 8. insert the boning
 - 9. cut the boning
 - 10. repeat for all 4 pieces
 - 11. make small cuts at an angle around the seam allowance around the curve
 - 12. topstitch all around the piece, turning the openings to the inside, closing the gap
 - 13. push the boning up so that it sits vertically inside of the boning channel
 - 14. repeat for second side with the boning curve facing opposite side

Attaching the pieces together

- 1. sew the tip of the shoulder wings to the shoulder of the bodice with the tip facing towards the back, creating a curve in the wing
- 2. secure the front of the wing for the first 14cm of the wing to the front bodice, matching up the notches
- 3. topstitch the middle curve of the wings to the middle of the back of the bodice, stopping before the first row of boning
- 4. using half feet, sure the back side of the wings to the back of the bodice by stitching right under the first row of boning
- 5. topstitch the right waist wing to the right side of the bodice 1cm from the edge, starting from the back
- 6. repeat for the left side, stop sewing after passing 6.5cm from the side seams
- 7. hand sew 5 pairs of hook and eyes between the left wing and the bodice placing hooks at the edge of the bodice

Order of Assembly

Attaching the pieces together:

1. match up notches and sew from that point down to the end of the trouser leg
2. come back to the top and sew around the tip of the wing
3. continue sewing down to the end of the leg

note: divide this into separate parts as sewing might have to be approached from different sides of the garment in order to access the necessary part to sew

4. hand sew the rest of the trouser leg, stop 8cm before reaching the boning of panel 6
